HAMPDEN-SYDNEY COLLEGE

VOLUME SIXTY-EIGHT

DEDICATION

DR. CHARLES FERGUSON McRAE

For his many years of service to Hampden-Sydney College, to his fellow man, and to God, the Staff of the 1964 KALEIDOSCOPE proudly dedicates this book to Dr. Charles Ferguson McRae.

OREWORD

The 1964 KALEIDOSCOPE presents a picture of Hampden-Sydney College, past and present, its purpose, its living traditions, and its life. In our short time here the college has come to mean a great deal to us all. Here we have learned, not only how to make a living, but also how to live. We hope that this book may preserve some of the real meaning of Hampden-Sydney so that in the future as you scan its pages, you may recall your own experience here and realize the true value of your years spent on the hill.

COLLEGE LIBRARY
HAMPDEN-SYDNEY, VA

IN 1776, THE YEAR OF THE BIRTH OF OUR NATION,

HAMPDEN-SYDNEY COLLEGE WAS FOUNDED.

IN HER NEARLY TWO CENTURIES OF EXISTENCE
HER APPEARANCE HAS CHANGED,

FOR SHE HAS KEPT PACE WITH THE DEMANDS OF THE TIMES;

BUT HER PURPOSE, "TO GIVE A BROAD UNDERSTANDING OF THE WORLD AND MAN'S PLACE IN IT,"

HAS REMAINED THE SAME.

"A TEACHER AFFECTS ETERNITY; HE CAN NEVER TELL WHERE HIS INFLUENCE STOPS."

The Tiger was founded in 1920 and has been in continuous existence on the H-S C campus since that year. A member of the Associated Collegiate Press, it is published on alternate Friday evenings during the school year by the students of Hampden-Sydney College from its offices located in Winston Hall.

The Tiger serves two purposes: to provide a medium for the distribution of information to H-S C students and to provide an outlet for student expression on the campus. The news staff seeks to collect and present accounts of past, present, and future events of interest to students; the feature staff attempts to present discussion of interesting and controversial issues, both on campus and beyond; and the sports staff provides an excellent summary of the fortunes of H-S C's athletic teams.

Dr. and Mrs. Reveley Attend Christmas German

The Hampden-Sydney German Club is an organization whose major purpose is the presentation of entertainment on four large week ends: Homecoming, Mid-Winters, Christmas Formal, and Finals. In the past year the German Club has presented for the enjoyment of its members such well-known groups as the Shirelles, Eddie Allen, the Lettermen, and Clyde McPhatter. The expenses of the German Club are met by membership dues and a sum contributed each year by the school.

Formed in 1962, The Booster Club continued its efforts through the 1963-64 school year in an effort to stimulate interest in extra curricular activities.

Working with the Freshmen, the Booster Club tried to assure the success of the ratting program. The sending of cars to away games for students who had no transportation found new success. Pep rallies became more successful in their new location in the Commons, and the Tiger band played through Farmville on the back of a truck to promote interest for the Homecoming game. Finally the Booster Club instituted three new awards to be given at the end of the year: one to the most active in sports; one to the freshman who made the greatest contribution in publications; and the last to the student exhibiting the most school spirit.

THE 1963 TIGERS

The Hampden-Sydney Football Tigers compiled their second consecutive winning season for Head Coach Stokeley Fulton. The team improved from a 6-4 record in 1962 to a 6-3 one in 1963. The Tigers once again opened with a victory against Guilford College, 14-7, and closed with a 14-7 victory over arch-rival Randolph-Macon at Ashland. In the course of the season, the Tigers defeated Bridgewater College, Newport News Apprentice School, Washington and Lee University, and Centre College.

Standout performances were turned in by quarterback Whitey Lipscomb, George Heilig, Archie Soucek and Buster Lammay

HAMPDEN-SYDNEY—13, GUILFORD—7

Greensboro, N. C., September 21—Hampden-Sydney opened its 1963 grid campaign by defeating this strong and rugged Guilford team. This last day of summer was a bright and sunny afternoon, with the temperature at a hot 95 degrees.

Sophomore quarterback Whitey Lipscomb proved himself to be the man to beat for the quarterback slot for the remainder of the season. Lipscomb put the Tigers ahead 6-0 with 2:05 remaining in the first half. After a pass to end Kent Carter, good for 45 yards, Lipscomb went over from the one. Travis Tysinger kicked the extra point.

The Guilford Quakers wasted no time in tying the score and at half-time it was 7-7.

Hampden-Sydney needed another pass to set up the winning score in the second half. George Heilig made a sensational catch, going up between two Guilford defenders to bring the ball down. That pass was good for 55 yards and Buster Lammay carried the ball over from the 11 yard line.

Freshman running back Kendall Whitaker, made his Tiger debut compiling 71 yards in 5 carries; the last play of the game finding Whitaker carrying the ball to the Quaker one-foot line.

HAMPDEN-SYDNEY—20, BRIDGEWATER—0

Hampden-Sydney, September 28—Hampden-Sydney continued domination of Bridgewater by scoring a touchdown in each quarter, dashing the hopes of a high-spirited Eagle team to upset the Tigers.

The Tigers started moving early in the first quarter with a first down on the Eagle 12. The Eagles' defense held but after an exchange of punts, H-SC was on the Bridgewater 26, following a 19 yard punt return by Lipscomb.

Buster Lammay then moved the ball until the Tigers were faced with a fourth-down situation on the two. Fullback Jim Pickens came into the game and crashed over the middle for the first score.

In the second quarter H-SC marched from their own 37 yard line to the Eagles' 10, but there they were held on downs. Bridgewater failed to move the ball and punted, whereupon, Lipscomb found Carter 30 yards downfield and he raced the rest of the distance for a 40 yard touchdown play.

After two second half touchdown passes had been called back because of penalties, Lipscomb threw a low bullet pass into the end zone which was snagged on a diving catch by Carter for the touchdown.

Freshman back Kendall Whitaker concluded the afternoon scoring for the Tigers with a beautiful 77 yard touchdown sprint in the fourth quarter.

HAMPDEN-SYDNEY—0, SEWANE—49

Sewanee, Tennessee, October 5—The University of the South (Sewanee) appeared to be the team of days gone by when they crushed Hampden-Sydney 49-0.

The Purple Tigers, paced by tailback M. L. Agnew, handed the Tigers their worst defeat since 1954 when Richmond downed the Tigers 40-0. The loss brought to an end Hampden-Sydney's six game win streak.

Coach Fulton commented, "I was very disappointed in our performance against Sewanee. We busted eight plays completely and missed key blocks on 13 plays. That's 21 of the 24 rushing plays we ran; we can't expect to win ball games on that type performance."

Freshman Kendall Whitaker and sophomore Walt McKibbon were the only bright spots for the Tigers. Whitaker picked up 31 yards of the total 44 yards gained by the Tigers.

HAMPDEN-SYDNEY—30, NEWPORT NEWS—0

Newport News, Virginia, October 12—The Hampden-Sydney eleven bounced back from their defeat before Sewanee for a 30-0 victory over the Newport News Apprentice School.

Archie Soucek scored two touchdowns for the Tigers. It was Soucek's eight yard run in the first period that began the scoring as Hampden-Sydney moved 29 yards in eight plays after end Walt McKibbin blocked a shipbuilder's punt.

Sophomore Ty Tysinger scored twelve points as he kicked a 32 yard field goal, the first in his career, in the first period, booted three extra points and gathered in a 17 yard pass from quarterback Whitey Lipscomb in the first quarter.

Kendall Whitaker, the Tiger's outstanding Freshman, again pleased the crowd with his 31 yard touchdown gallop.

HAMPDEN-SYDNEY—12, WESTERN MARYLAND—15

Western Maryland stormed back in the last minute and a half to score a 15-12 triumph over Hampden-Sydney in the annual Homecoming game on October 19th. Up to that last tragic minute and a half, the Tigers had completely dominated the game. On the ground Hampden-Sydney gained 327 yards, with Buster Lammay carrying for 109 in 22 attempts and freshman Kendall Whitaker picking up 69 yards in 12 carries.

After a scoreless first half, H-S managed a 47 yard drive that culminated a 20 yard pass from quarterback Whitey Lipscomb to end Kent Carter, in the Terror's end zone. The extra point attempt was wide and the Tigers held a 6-0 lead. Minutes later Western Maryland struck back with a touchdown, making the conversion and taking over the lead 7-6.

Halfback Whitaker picked up 32 yards in five carries to lead the Bengals to their next score with six minutes remaining in the game. Travis Tysinger traversed the final 13 yards for the six point play. Death Valley was buzzing with excitement, but not for long, as Terror quarterback Confer completed a 40 yard pass on a fourth and 15 situation. Then came the heartbreaking 30 yard pass which ended up in the Tiger end zone, and in a 13-12 lead for the Green Terrors. The two-point conversion was good. Eighteen seconds later the gun sounded ending the game by the slim margin of 15-12.

HAMPDEN-SYDNEY—12, WASHINGTON & LEE—11

On Saturday, October 26 the Washington & Lee Generals came to Death Valley seeking their fourth consecutive win over the Tigers of Hampden-Sydney. Win they did not, however, as the Tigers snatched victory away from the Generals with less than a minute remaining in the contest. When the second half gun sounded, the Tigers had a 12-11 victory.

Hampden-Sydney dominated everything but the score in the first half as the Generals held an 11-0 advantage during the intermission. The second half was highlighted by the clutch running and passing of sophomore quarterback Whitey Lipscomb, who played his finest game of the season. With 45 seconds remaining in the game, and the Tigers trailing 11-6, Lipscomb launched the pigskin from midfield taken at the 15 by both end Kent Carter and W&L defensive halfback Bill David. In what proved to be the key play of the game, the officials ruled that Carter had possession of the ball before the whistle ended the play. Lipscomb secured the victory with a one yard plunge five plays later. The pass for a two-point conversion was incomplete.

Early in the fourth quarter the Tigers began their first deep penetration into General territory behind the skillful leadership of quarterback Lipscomb. Three pass completions to junior wingback George Heilig, moved the ball to the W&L 10. Lipscomb carried from there for six points on a slant off right tackle.

FREDERICK—30, HAMPDEN-SYDNEY 12

Nansemond County, Virginia, November 1—Perhaps it was the wind coming in from Hampton Roads that defeated the Tigers at Frederick College, 30-12. One thing is certain, the Frederick Lions had some kind of assistance to score 24 points in ten minutes—10 of these points in a period of less than twenty-five seconds.

Wade Traynham was the big man for the Lions as he kicked three wind-backed field goals and three extra points.

Hampden-Sydney, outweighed as much as fifty pounds at the tackles, took a 12-6 half-time lead on two runs by quarterback Whitey Lipscomb.

The Tiger's initial touchdown featured a 29 yard run by Buster Lam-may down to the Lions' 24 yard line. Six plays later Lipscomb went over for the score.

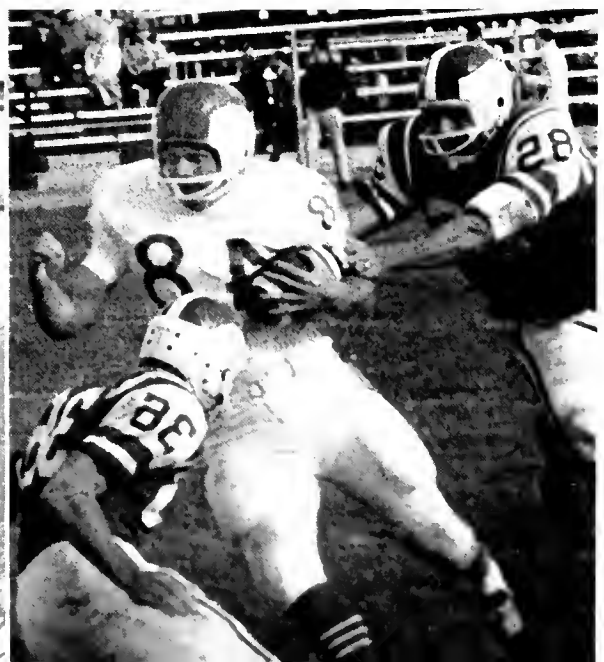

Lipscomb flipped a screen pass to George Heilig, netting 42 yards and setting up the second Tiger score from the seven. Lipscomb carried his second touchdown over from the five.

The heavy wind hampered both squads, especially in the punting department. Frederick kicked four times and Hampden-Sydney six, both having an eighteen yard average. One Hampden-Sydney punt in the first period against strong gusts netted only two yards.

HAMPDEN-SYDNEY—12, CENTRE—7

In the last home game of the season, the Tigers of Hampden-Sydney entertained the Praying Colonels of Centre College in Kentucky, and defeated them 12-7.

Two second quarter touchdowns proved to be enough for the Tiger victory. Steady running by sophomore fullback Ty Tysinger helped move the ball from the H-S 46 down to the Centre 25. On the first play from the 25 yd. line, freshman quarterback George Summers connected with Charles Stuart on a pass play that carried to the 10. Freshman fullback Jimmy Null then plunged the pigskin to paydirt. The conversion attempt was wide.

Centre was forced to punt after failing to move the ball on the next set of downs. Whitey Lipscomb returned the punt 16 yards to the Praying Colonels' 44, and the stage was set for the second Tiger score of the day. After picking up 20 yards on successive runs, Tysinger cracked over the goal for another touchdown. The half ended 12-0.

Defensive plays by guard Sid Druen and center Steve DeBell quickly snuffed out any fourth quarter upset hopes that Centre might have had. Druen, a senior, intercepted a quick jump pass thrown from the Tiger 38. On the march again, with four minutes to play, Centre passed and DeBell, a sophomore, intercepted near the midfield stripe. From that point the Bengals ran out the clock with time-consuming line plunges, ending the game 12-7.

HAMPDEN-SYDNEY—14, RANDOLPH-MACON—7

Ashland, Virginia, November 16—Hampden-Sydney was able to stave off a fired up Randolph-Macon team and earn a 14-7 victory in the season's finale with this potent rival.

Randolph-Macon scored early in the ball game when a Jacket line-back recovered a Hampden-Sydney fumble on the Tigers own 27 yard line on the seventh play of the game.

Yellow Jacket halfback Pat Piercy then proceeded to gain 21 yards and go over for the Randolph-Macon score. R-M made the extra point and led 7-0.

The Tigers then went on the march. With Randolph-Macon's tackles and ends protecting the outside, the Tigers moved 80 yards through the middle of the line and through the air.

Quarterback Whitey Lipscomb completed two third down passes, one for 17 yards, the other for 10 yards, to end Billy Edwards. Archie Soucek then ran 15 yards to put the ball on the seven yard line. Soucek later crashed over from the one for the score. Lipscomb's two point extra point play failed and Randolph-Macon maintained the lead, 7-6.

Tiger center George Perkins recovered a Yellow Jacket fumble on the Jackets' 42 yard line and Hampden-Sydney was ahead four plays later. Lipscomb threw 21 yards to George Heilig and Soucek ran to the 10 yard line. After Lipscomb picked up five, Soucek gained the next five and the score. Lipscomb passed to Heilig for the two extra points and the Tigers were in the lead to stay, 14-7.

In the third quarter also Randolph-Macon moved to the Hampden-Sydney 30 after they intercepted a Tiger pass, but then Lipscomb picked off a Jacket pass. With Soucek gaining 32 yards up the middle, H-S reached the R-M 12, but Lipscomb's fourth down run was halted inches short of the first down.

Randolph-Macon came up with two serious threats in the fourth quarter. With pint-sized quarterback Charles Rippon calling the signals, the Yellow Jackets drove to the H-S four yard line. However, the threat faded when Jim Null and Buster Lammay tossed Rippon for a seven yard loss, and Rippon's fourth down pass sailed inches over the fingers of a receiver in the end-zone.

With four minutes remaining, Randolph-Macon ran a screen pass that carried to the Tigers 24 yard line. In the next three plays R-MC gained six yards and the sophomore quarterback Jack Frazee was assigned to run over one of the game's most important plays.

Frazee, who had not played all day, ran an option to the right. He had blockers in front and had a hole spotted. But H-SC end Walt McKibben, having himself seen very little action during the day, in a desperation dive, nailed Frazee at the seventeen and the issue was decided.

The 1963-64 basketball season was an up and down affair for the Tigers. The season opened with loss to nationally ranked Davidson. Co-Captain Mike Crone was high for the Tigers with 14 points as the Tigers came out on the short end of a 98-52 score.

The Tigers then journeyed to William and Mary to meet their second Southern Conference opponent in as many games. Junior center Ed Witthoeft led the Tigers with 15 points in an 81-49 defeat.

Returning to their own conference the Tigers downed Lynchburg 76-62. Sophomore Thom Quarles was high with 22 points.

The Bengals continued their winning ways by downing R.P.I. 116-78. Co-Captain Phil Lotz led the assault with a personal career high of 33 points.

Bridgewater was the next victim of the charging Tigers. Lotz was again high for H-S with 21 points as the final score read 104-62.

Pembroke State broke to an early 20 point lead, but the men from Death Valley were not to be denied. With a devastating full court press and Thom Quarles' 21 points the Tigers pulled it out 104-73.

The Shipbuilders from Newport News were the Tigers fifth straight victim. With Quarles again leading the way with 20 points, the Tigers won it 94-66.

After the Christmas break the Tigers returned to their winning ways; Newport News was again the victim, this time by a 77-71. The Tigers were paced by Phil Lotz with 24 points and some brilliant last minute clutch play by Sophomore Frank Booth.

In their best defensive showing of the year, the Tigers won their seventh straight by a 59-56 count over Bridgewater. Thom Quarles was high with 20 points, as the Eagles were limited to a total of 17 points in the second half.

The Yellow Jackets of Randolph-Macon then ended the win streak by a score of 91-81. Phil Lotz with a valiant effort in the losing cause poured through 20 markers.

The Tigers, suddenly flat, dropped another decision, this time to Old Dominion 80-76. Lotz, the only Tiger still playing well, was again high with 22.

Baltimore University then invaded Death Valley and administered the Tigers third straight defeat 82-80. Junior Steve Snyder, who came on strong at the end of the year, was high with 21 points.

The Bengals put forth a valiant try for a victory at Roanoke, but were downed 86-83 in overtime. Big gun for the Tigers was Phil Lotz with 26 points.

The Tigers finally ended their losing skien with a 76-61 victory at Lynchburg. Thom Quarles paced the effort with 25 points.

The warriors from "the Hill" then ran into a clinging defense thrown up by Mt. St. Mary's, and came out on the short end, 67-49. Lotz was high with 14.

Washington College was the next stop and the Tigers administered a 110-89 thrashing of the home club. Thom Quarles led the avalanche with 36 points.

The Tigers even then were soundly thumped by Randolph-Macon 117-87. The only bright spot in an otherwise dismal outing was the brilliant shooting of Quarles who was again high with 36.

Quarles continued his phenomenal scoring spree in leading the Bengals to an 85-76 victory over R.P.I. He scored 30.

The Tigers then gained revenge for an early defeat at the hands of Roanoke by trouncing them 105-75. Quarles again was magnificent, swishing home 31 markers to show the way.

The season then ended on a sour note as Old Dominion came to Gammon Gymnasium and emerged with a 78-73 victory. Quarles was high for the losers with 22.

This was the final season of play for two senior co-captains, Mike Crone and Phil Lotz. Lotz finished his finest campaign, averaging 18.8 points per game and did some outstanding board work. Crone, with a 10 point average, was even more valuable due to his excellent floor play.

Despite the loss of these two stalwarts the Hampden-Sydney basketball future should be bright. For the first time in many years the Tigers had a freshman team. Leading contenders for varsity positions from that squad will be Tom Richardson, Russ Parker and Tommy Lawrence, all of whom have seen some varsity action. In addition there will be eight returnees with varsity experience: rising seniors Dave Trickler, Ed Witthoeft, Steve Snyder, Jeff Bowker and Ernie Rathmann along with rising juniors Frank Booth and Thom Quarles.

A special note is in order about the fine play of Quarles. He led the scorers with an even 20 point average and was second in rebounds. He is the main hope of Tiger fans to carry the basketball fortunes to new heights.

TENNIS

The 1963 edition of the Hampden-Sydney tennis team completed another one of its most successful seasons under the confident and capable leadership of Head Coach Stokeley Fulton and Team Captain Pete Hatcher. With a fine record of 12 wins against 3 defeats, the tennis team won the Southern Division Championship of the Mason-Dixon Conference and finished second to Loyola of Baltimore in the championship match. One of these losses was to a non-collegiate team, i.e., the powerful Army team from Fort Eustis in Hampton, Virginia. Through the past two seasons, the tennis team has lost only two collegiate matches as against having won 25 matches.

The top six men were composed of Pete Hatcher, George Heilig, Buddy Saunders, Bing Gentry, Grayson Boyce and Jim Patton.

There were two important wins that are remembered as highlights of the season. The first came in the early part of the season when the team scored an exciting 5-4 victory over highly regarded Washington and Lee University. The second highlight and our most important conference victory was a 6-3 victory over Randolph-Macon in early May which avenged a loss to them the week before. This gave us the Southern Division Championship and sent us to the championship match against Loyola.

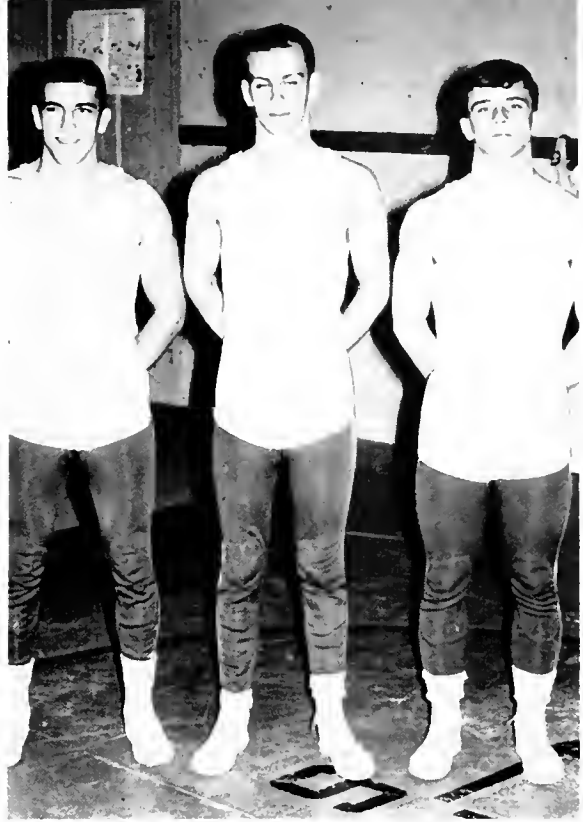

Thanks must also go to the lower players on the ladder, such as Jim Morris, Scott Street and Al Ringewald, who also contributed greatly to the success of the 1963 team.

WRESTLING

The 1963-64 edition of the Tiger Wrestling Squad was composed of Bob Graham, 123 lb.; Jeff Reed, 130 lb.; Skip Kight and Ham Scherer, 137 lb.; Madison Cummings, 147 lb.; Gordon Reamey, 157 lb.; Buzzy Yount, 167 lb.; John Franklin, 177 lb., and Herb Sebren, 191 lb. The team posted wins over Newport News, American University, and R.P.I. twice, thus proving that even during a rebuilding year such as this, wins can be brought home. Coach Wacker is looking forward to a very good team next season with the return of all of his lettermen from this year.

STUART, MITCHELL

For the first time in several years the Hampden-Sydney College baseball team traveled south during the spring vacation. Had they not made that southern trip their lackluster 10-13 overall record would have been better. Facing the 1962 NAIA champion, Southern Georgia, in the first two contests of the season, the Tigers went down to defeat twice, 8-0, and 8-3. SEC powerhouse Florida University also tripped the Fighting Bengals twice, while H-SC took victories over Jacksonville University, 3-1, and Stetson, 4-1. The Tigers returned to Death Valley sun-tanned—but with a dismal 2-5 won/lost record. Ty Tysinger and Dave Trickler proved to be the batting champs of the southern tour. Bob Maxwell and Steve Sanderson led the mound corps.

Returning to the Mason-Dixon Conference and the Little Eight, the Death Valley warriors fared much better, posting 4-6 and 5-5 records, respectively. Freshman Mark Chinn turned in several fine performances on the mound for the Tigers and Whitey Lipscomb performed equally as well with the bat.

Art Matney hurled a brilliant four-hit shut-out over Randolph-Macon, the final score being 11-0. In the NCAA Atlantic Coast Regional Playoffs, held at Death Valley, the Tigers were defeated by the University of Buffalo, 12-2 and then came back to edge the U. S. Coast Guard Academy 4-3.

Fred Mitchell was the recipient of the Ray A. Moore Most Valuable Player Award and the sportsmanship award went to Tom McDaniel.

The strength of Coach Lou Wacker's 1963 track squad was not found in number but rather in versatility and desire. The Tiger squad of only eleven men won three of its seven dual meets, including a victory over arch rival Randolph-Macon College.

Senior Bill Caperton, enjoying his best season since setting two school records in 1959, paced the squad in scoring and was a consistent winner for the Bengals in the middle distance events.

In the first two meets of the season, the team's lack of depth was evident as they bowed to Bridgewater College and Washington and Lee University. The Tigers bounced back, however, and downed Lynchburg College 68 to 54 for their first victory of the season. A strong and talented Roanoke team defeated the Tigers in their next outing despite a fine effort by Bill Caperton who posted his best time of the year in winning the 880 yard run.

The Tiger Cindermen finished the '63 season strong as they captured two out of their last three meets, losing only to Old Dominion College, the Little Eight Champions.

In winning their second meet of the year against Guilford College, Coach Wacker's eleven-man squad mastered its biggest point spread of the season as they downed the Quakers 77 to 54.

The Tigers' third victory was a dramatic, see-saw battle against their arch rivals in the final dual meet of the season. After the lead of the meet changed hands all afternoon, the Tiger thin-clads found themselves trailing 60 to 57 with only one event left. The H-SC mile relay team provided the most exciting moment of the track season as they clinched the meet for a 62 to 60 victory over Randolph-Macon College. The dramatic moment came on the fourth lap of the mile relay when Bill Caperton, the relay anchorman, almost dropped the relay baton in the exchange from his teammate. Caperton, however, trailing the yellow jacket runner by fifteen yards, made up the difference in a tremendous last lap to give the Tigers their biggest win of the season.

1963 GOLF TEAM

The 1963 edition of the Hampden-Sydney Golf Team enjoyed another winning season with a record of 5-2-2. Under the able tutelage of Coach Richard Burrell, the Linksmen swung their way to victories over Roanoke (2), Washington and Lee, Bridgewater, and R.P.I. The losses came at the hands of Lynchburg and V.M.I. while the ties were with Old Dominion and Randolph-Macon. Led by Captain Bobby Bennett, the Tigers also finished third in the Small College Division of the State Tournament played at The Cascades.

The linksmen with returning lettermen Phil Lotz, Charlie Thompson, Joe Tuck, Murray Hooker and Jim Robertson look forward to an even more successful season in 1964.

INTRAMURALS

We have been very fortunate here at Hampden-Sydney to have had an active intramural system, providing athletic competition for those not wishing to take part in our varsity program. The system is composed of the eight social fraternities competing in eight sports for the intramural cup, which is awarded to that group with the greatest number of points at the end of the year. The sports are divided into two groups, touch football, A-League basketball, and softball being the major sports, while B-League basketball, ping-pong, pool, horseshoes, and volleyball are the minor sports. David Fuller is this year's Intramural Manager. It is his task to schedule all games, tabulate the points, and provide jerseys and equipment. In football the Kappa Sigs went undefeated to take the crown. Second place was won by the Pikas, and third place was a tie between the Kappa Alphas and the Chi Phis. In A-League basketball, the Theta Chis took the championship, beating the Pikas in a playoff game. The Pikas took second place, and third place went to the Kappa Sigs.

EPILOGUE

We are deeply grateful to all of those who gave their time and support to the publication of the 1964 KALEIDOSCOPE. Special thanks go to the students and faculty members whose contributions made this book possible. We express appreciation to Mr. William P. Blackwell of Lynchburg Engraving Company and Mr. Austin Taylor of The Stone Printing and Manufacturing Company for their valuable aid in setting up and carrying out the plans for the book; to Mr. Frank Schimenti of Colonna Studios for his cooperation; and to Mr. Joseph Trotter, Mrs. Graves Thompson, Mr. Paul Grier, and Dan Hawkes of the Farmville Herald for their help in securing pictures for us. The help of all of these people has enabled us to produce a book that we hope you will value through the years.

SINCE THE CLASS OF 1882

Yes, since 1882 we have taken pride in serving the men of Hampden-Sydney, their families and friends.

Today we are proud of the tradition which we have attained for hospitality, service and elegance. Yet we are continually striving for new and better ways to serve.

Congratulations to the Graduating Class. May its members carry on the tradition of greatness that has won fame far and wide for Hampden-Sydney.
